2. Mr. Besterman, Chief Clerk of the House Immigration Subcommittee, has advised that he has no objections to attempting to pre-date the private bill for [redacted] to his date of entry in 1949 rather than the date of the passage of the act as is customary. I pointed out [redacted] unique position in the field of psychological warfare.

3. [redacted] of ONE discussed with me the request of Professor Henning of Yale for all public statements of Senators Taft, Smith of New Jersey, Wiley, Bridges, and Speaker Martin for use in the Yale study on what the Soviet Union can know of U. S. intentions from the public record. I informed [redacted] that this request is extremely broad and should be made more specific prior to any action upon it.
